Tamia Booker

VETERAN POLITICAL STRATEGIST
& COMMENTATOR

MEDIA KIT

www.tbookerstrategies.com

Meet Tamia

VETERAN POLITICAL STRATEGIST & COMMENTATOR

Tamia Booker is a veteran political strategist with nearly two decades of experience building dynamic coalitions and working with national leaders to drive meaningful change. Tamia has served as Deputy Chief of Staff to Senator Cory Booker and National Political Director for his presidential run, Senior Advisor on President Biden's Inaugural Committee, National African American Outreach Director for Hillary Clinton, Executive Director of the College Democrats of America, and an appointee of President Barack Obama - serving as his Associate Director of External Affairs within his Department of Health and Human Services.

Across these roles, and now as a consultant to leaders and causes she believes in, Tamia has built a national reputation for organizing people and advancing tangible solutions in the world of politics, policy, government and philanthropy.

CNN NBC NEWS Roll Call The Philadelphia Inquirer ESSENCE SPRINGFIELD NEWS-SUN AFRO TECH #ROLAND MARTIN UNFILTERED DAILY DIGITAL SHOW

FEATURED APPEARANCES

Tamia Booker on MSNBC Politics Nation with Rev. Al Sharpton to speak about the swearing in of LA's first Black woman mayor Karen Bass, by our first woman and first Black woman VP Kamala Harris.

WATCH NOW

Tamia Booker on CNN speaking about the process of vetting VP candidates and why it is important for the Presidential candidate and VP candidate to be on the same page.

WATCH NOW

Notable Quotes

"By extension, concerns about Harris are legit, says political strategist Tamia Booker, who witnessed President Obama's challenges over the Affordable Care Act — even over Republican concepts embedded in Obamacare. "I can't imagine her not going through something very similar if not worse," said Booker, who worked in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services during the Obama administration. "It was a crazy time."

"Black women are oftentimes looked at as the number two, and never good enough to be number one. And she is the one that will finally be able to say, I am the one that can do this," Booker said.

GET IN TOUCH

Contact us below to feature Tamia in your next event, show or article!

pr@tbookerstrategies.com
www.tbookerstrategies.com
(202) 573-8058